

Heritage Farm Release

Warning: Under Tennessee Law, an equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, title 44, chapter 20.

I have read and fully understand the above stated Tennessee Equine Activity Liability Act, and will not hold Heritage Farm, its owners, employees, property owners or anyone associated with Heritage Farm responsible for ANY accident, injury or death that could occur to rider, horse, participant, family member, groom, spectator or anyone associated with the horse or rider. By signing this form you understand and agree that Heritage Farm, its owners, employees or anyone associated with Heritage Farm, is IN NO WAY RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY MEDICAL BILLS that could possibly incur to horse, rider, or anyone associated with the horse or rider. By signing this release of liability I also agree that Heritage Farm, its owners, employees or anyone associated with Heritage Farm will not be held responsible for damage, loss or theft to personal property to include but not limited to automobiles, trailers and tack, or animals while on Heritage Farm's property. By signing this form you understand that this release covers any activity you may partake in during 2016 and any subsequent years thereafter at Heritage Farm, including but not limited to horse shows, riding of any sort, trying out sales horses, riding lessons, clinics and schooling in our arena or anywhere on Heritage's property. You are riding at your own risk!
